Expand your cup holder, expand your life!

Reviewed in the United States on May 20, 2019
Color: Black Size: Medium*1 Verified Purchase

Chyuhh! This cup holder-expander is excellent!! I was pleasantly surprised with the materials - very sturdy. Also, it. does. not. rattle! For those of you who can't get enough of the larger Hydro Flask/Yeti's and are tired of them flying off of your passenger seat onto the floorboard, praise be it this little guy. I was waiting for a hot minute for this to come back in stock. Do yourself a favor and just shell out -/+$20.

So here's the compatibility breakdown (mind you, this is not all inclusive, just validation for my gear):
Hydro Flask 32oz
Hydro Flask 40oz
Yeti Rambler 26oz
Yeti Rambler 30oz
Camelbak Chute Mag 32oz
Camelbak Chute Mag 40oz (it's tight, but fits)
S'well Traveler: 16 & 20oz
Nalgene bottle: 32oz
Cheers!

 Don Thompson

Great Product

Reviewed in the United States on July 5, 2019
Color: Black   Size: Medium*1   Verified Purchase

I almost didn't buy this because I thought the cup holders in my Dodge Charger were too small. The space is confined even more by the cup holder cover. As much as I love my new car, this was one area that needs improvement. I was pleasantly surprised to find that this ingenious product fits perfectly. I love the adjustable portion that holds it in place. Twisting it loosens or tightens the grip. There is rubber to keep my hydro-flask from moving around or making any noise at all. Great purchase for my new car. My #1 complaint solved.

SpinPHD

Would have loved if the top piece didn't come off on first use

Reviewed in the United States on July 19, 2019

Color: Black Size: Medium*1 Verified Purchase

I really want to like this product, and I actually really do like many aspects to it. Mainly, the spinning base makes it easy to fit in any cup holder. The cup holder part is also tall enough to prevent tipping for those top heavy flasks like the yeti 36oz that I use it with.

Unfortunately, I have to give it a low review because the top part of the cup holder that secures your cup/flask from wobbling came off the first time I used it with my 36oz yeti (as seen in first picture). I tried to put it back on but it pops right back off every I take my yeti out. So now it has a lot of space between yeti and the holder which makes it wobble while driving (2nd picture). Not to mention it looks ugly with that top piece off. I haven't asked for replacement yet, so not sure how customer service is so can't comment on that.

Also to note that with the top piece on, the 14oz yeti mug does NOT FIT as mentioned in description, however it WILL FIT after that top piece came off (3rd picture). So the top part coming off would have been a good problem to have, but I had a holder for my 14oz yeti mug already personally made since I could never find one that fit including the description of this holder. This may be a solution for those looking to find an extender for the thicker 14oz yeti. mug

VentureTraceOutdoors

I liked it...before it broke

Reviewed in the United States on July 14, 2019

Color: Black Size: Medium*1 Verified Purchase

I bought two of these for my truck because I consistently drink out of Nalgene bottles and regular cupholders just couldn't cut it. I opted for this product because it both looked good and seemed durable. After a few weeks of use, one of them broke. I've included some photos and you can see that the bottom completely sheared off at the contact point. This was just through normal use...one day I pulled my Nalgene bottle out and the top slid right off into the floorboard.

I left a 3 star review because my other one is currently going strong. I'll update if anything changes. I'm hoping that maybe I was just unlucky and received a defective one.

***UPDATE 07/19/19

Seller saw my review and reached out. They sent me two new ones to replace my originals. They claim that they have since upgraded the material to prevent failure at the contact points where mine original failed. Based on customer service and no current defects with the replacements, I'm changing my review to 5 stars. If anything changes, I'll update the review again.
